

Ataris, Take Me Back

I am blue, the sky is grey,
I guess it's better off that way.
There's really not much left to say.
I called you on the phone,
another guy said that you weren't at
home,
but, I don't care I'll call you again
anyway.
Baby I'd give you the world...
please forget about those fifteen other girls.
I don't care what they say...
I didn't mean to stand you up on our wedding day.
I'm sorry that I gave you that infection,
and said we had sex on the Love Connection.
Can I ever make it up to you?
I'm sorry that I made you mad,
the things I did just didn't seem that bad...
Except for maybe when I blew up your car.
Oh baby what can I do???
Every girl I'm with makes me think of you.
I call your name in my sleep.
Too bad you think that I'm a creep.
Please take me back...
