

Ataris, Your boyfriend sucks

You're better off without him
Don't call him
He's breaking your heart.
He's hanging with your best friend
And you're waiting there
It's tearing you apart.
He lied to you a thousand times,
When I was there he kept you waiting.
And I'm still here waiting there
To catch you if you fall.
I don't know why I care so much
When I shouldn't care at all.
Finally got the nerve to tell you
How much you mean to me
You said that I was your best friend,
A real sweet guy
But that's all I'd ever be.
