

Athena Cage, Take It Out On Me

sittin here just lookin outside at the rain fallin down it aint the same around here ever since the day that you walked out i tried to keep my composure so that i dont come undone missing you so much right now cause i treated you wrong did you know, i pray that you'll come to me every night, before i lay down to sleep baby, if i cant be with you my sweet babe then i think im gonna take it out on me if i cant feel the warmness that you bring my hearts gonna take it out on me whats the point in moving on if i cant let you go memories wont leave me alone cause your all i know my heart is reaching but somehow i cant touch you hope its not too late and your in love with someone new

if i cant feel the warmness you bring
(repeat)
