

Athenaeum, Wating For You

I wanna hear the words
That you never speak
I wanna close my eyes
And wake to your lips upon my cheek
I wanna know
would you still walk away
We've suffered enough this time
And these things will never go our way

Hold on tight 'cause I don't wanna say goodbye anymore than you do
And all I see is you just wanna make believe
And I don't have the words up my sleeve
I'm waiting for you

I wanna change
But these things will never die
I wanna hear you say
That nothing is stronger than you and I
