

Athlete, Forest Fire

Forest fire, coming this way
You decide which way to run
I know I'll be running for it
'Cause its gonna catch us anyway

And I'll prepare myself for what could be
The greatest fire of the century
And if this place should burn
Then I'm ready to go
No way I wont have to face it on my own

I'll be standing, on the corner waiting
For the sky to open up
I know it could be any moment
And its gonna take all that i am

And I'll prepare myself for what could be
The greatest fire of the century
And if this place should burn
Then I'm ready to go
No way I wont have to face it on my own

And I'll prepare myself for what could be
The greatest fire of the century
And if this place should burn
Then I'm ready to go
No way I wont have to face this on my own
