

Athlete, Out Of Nowhere

Seven out of twenty-one knocked down
Now only fourteen left to go
I didn't know that I was next in line
But it is not as if I've had much time
Jetlag all around me voices calling
Saying please don't go away
Last thing I remember drifting down this tunnel
Was bright light ahead

Out of nowhere
It came and hit me on the head
Out of nowhere
I saw it over there
Before it hit you on the head
I saw it over there

Out of nowhere
It came and hit me on the head
Out of nowhere
I saw it over there
Before it hit you on the head
I saw it over there

Seven out of twenty-one knocked down
I didn't know that I was next in line
But it is not as if I've had much time
Jetlag all around me voices calling
Saying please don't go away
Last thing I remember drifting down this tunnel
Was bright light ahead

Then when I came around
Somebody helped me to my feet
And said I can't believe you're still alive
I've seen twenty other people in the last half an hour
Who've been hit right between the eyes
Seems that somebody some where's on a mission to protect you
Knowing that you should have survived
Hurrah, hurrah, HURRAH
We're still alive

Out of nowhere
It came and hit me on the head
Out of nowhere
I saw it over there
Before it hit you on the head
I saw it over there

It came and hit me on the head
Out of nowhere
I saw it over there
Before it hit you on the head
I saw it over there

It came and hit me on the head
Out of nowhere
I saw it over there
Before it hit you on the head
I saw it over there
Out of nowhere
