Songs Of Suburbia

Seventeen-hundred people all in a happy town
Next door neighbor's boy mows the lawn for Mrs. Brown
Don't have much pollution
Don't have that much crime
Except for the time when a kid threw a rock
Through the Dunkin' Donuts sign

Songs of suburbia

Things ain't all that hard

Pa's in the office

Pool in our backyard

Kids in trendy clothing all play their happy games

Got lost just the other day cause all the houses look the same

Got my wife, got my kids

My happiness and health

Black kid goes to the local school

But he keeps to himself

Grabbed myself a video

Watched it the other day

Dinner's in the micro

Wife's at the PTA

Songs of suburbia

Not one single whore

Who cares what the neighbor's got? Go out and get some more!

Everybody is OK, they all seem pretty clean

Thank god for Lawn Doctor

He keeps our front lawn green

Songs of suburbia

Sweet songs fill the land

Except for Tommy Salmon and his fucking garage band

(That's us!!)

Songs of suburbia

Talking 'bout me and you

Guess I'll see you next week at the Johnson's Bar-bar-que!
