

Atom And His Package, Anarchy Means That I Litter

i got a patch, i got a pin of teen political beliefs from the same songs as my friends i got a five-fingered discount to the little record store it's easier to get the stuff i want out and if you want fair compensation for the work that you do, then well (greedy, yeah) we have amazing names to call you ever think theres a difference who you're stealing from?
so fine about punk and you are... (a moron)

CHORUS

we're gonna tear this stupid city down
throw our trash, our t, t, trash on the ground
throw parades that go on later
oh, i get it, anarchy means that you litter
we're gonna tear this stupid city down
throw our trash, our t, t, trash on the ground
throw parades that go on later
oh, i get it, anarchy means that you litter so if you're flying the flag then you are naming the name well then you're setting back the ones that know how to behave its a good thing that this replenishes itself because who would be left to take advantage of your health

CHORUS

(we're gonna drop drop, were gonna drop, we're gonna drop our trash on you) (yeah, we're gonna drop drop, were gonna drop, we're gonna drop our trash on you)

nice!
