

Atom Tha Immortal, Rhyme

{{Song||Atom Tha Immortal|star=Green}}

I'm like the armies of Alexander/
Upon the Continent/
My verbal venom's volatile when I spit/
Causing abrasion/
From bio-chemical equations/
Turn black skin like Michael Jackson, Caucasian/
Melting the flesh deep within/
33 levels of Melanin couldn't counter enzymes I'm developing/
I let you hit, so I can hit back/
I absorb your energy, to hit you with a harder attack/
You retarded cats/
About to burn like Cherynoby/
When G-d proves the Case for Christ like Lee Strobel/
Throwing the world in turmoil/
Protects oil and wine (Rev. 6:6) while mankind is covered in boils (Rev.16:2)/
Apocalyptic vision permeates my thought/
Not the ramblings of mystics, but Metaphysics from G-d/
godly men were given visions inside of the synagogue/
Understanding/
Signs, seasons and times/
Of the return of Christ/
Coming like a thief in the night (Matt. 24:43-44)/
Standing at the door (Rev. 3:20)/
Waiting for the World War IV (Rev. 19:19)/
So he can give the blessings promised to the meek and the poor (Matt. 5:3,5)/
Jesus is Lord/
Ruling with the Scepter and Sword (Rev. 19:15)/

Chorus:

Entropy increasing like distance between the stars/
Information encoded in 16 bars/
Kill a rhyme, thick and sick like early SARS/
We can never be what you believe/
We're who we are/

Sooner or later you'll find/
We're nearly out of time/
So I rhyme, hit with an unforgettable flow/
I'm like the roles of Russell Crowe, combined hater/
A beautiful mind in the body of Gladiator/
Analyze data/
With a mind searching the furthest reaches of space an time/
Bodys in it's physical prime/
Einstein's lines of science couldn't define my energy/
I stand in defiance to Entropy/
Moving faster than a light wave/
My mic cage/
Scars your chest-plate like the mark of a slave/
Spiritually aligned with the only Truth defined (John 14:6)/
The Unmoved Mover moving in with all mankind (John 1:1)/
Lion of Judah (Rev. 5:5)/
The Word became flesh (John 1:14)/
Born in Israel, dwelling in a physical tent (2 Cor. 5:1)/
With the intent to Resurrect/
Jesus Christ was crucified/
Died a man's death, and resurrected alive/

(Chorus)

This is the last night you'll ever see the light again/
Artificial Intelligence encoding lyrics with a binary pen/
A panic attack/
Pandemonium in the streets/
Set your terror alerts red high, when I speak/
Cryptanalysts' analysis of my writtens/
Finding hidden meanings and messages, compressed in my sentences/
My thought's beyond comprehension/
Fold my verses into a cube, new lyrics form in three-dimensions/
Multiple levels of destruction/
When I slay/
With my eruption/
Like Mount Vesuvius on Pompeii/
You'll call me "Y2k" when I start dropping this/
Cause you'll have no idea what day it is when you regain consciousness.
