

Atomic Opera, Love Is As Strong As Death

We stand beneath the sky
We swear our love will never end
We sleep before the grave
We believe that life will always be in
Love is as strong as death
Is as strong as love
We see beyond our soul
We speak the words that shape our hope
We vow to hold the true
We believe that we will always be in
Love is as strong as
Death is as strong as love
With the promise of our youth
The silence from the truth
The passing of the rage
The glory of a child
The tearing of the page
We stand before the sky
We swear our love will never die
We'll sleep under the grave
With the promise that we'll always stay in love
