

Atomic Opera, Stop The Rain

I stare into the sunrise
Cold
A face of fear
A void of soul
Inside
This hole
Where I feel safe
Inside this storm
This empty place
This crown of clouds
I wear alone
This dust of rain
Stays on and on
Nothing can stop the rain
It gets in everything
Nothing comes from everything
I am
Nothing can stop the rain
I climbed the stairs
Upon my knees
Penance of glass
A drop of peace
Nothing I do
Can fill this hole
Can clear this storm
Can give me hope
This crown of clouds
I wear alone
This dust of rain
Stays on and on
