

Atomic Swing, Stone Me Into The Groove

I woke up and the sun was dressed in blue the Panavision colours ran out, out in my room
I wanna paint them where ever you go
I wanna thrill you but I want it slow
I wanna fly in the room of your arms
I wanna enjoy all of your charms

So just stone me into the groove
You're making everything beautiful
I think it's wonderful
Stone me into the groove
I wanna go!

Oh, my saviour, my friend, just take me away from tonight and in, into today
Just take me out on a carpet ride into a place where I mustn't hide
'cause I'm bored of the ancient truth
I am a car crash in the blue

So just stone me into the groove...

Just name a place where I would'nt got 'cause I wanna fly, love, move, cry fly, fly, love, love everything that you do

So just stone me into the groove...
