

Atomic, The Tide Is High

Her upsets is what she is about
She's got that smirk uh huh, her dirty red mouth
Her lights down to a single lane
To pull you deep inside her flame
Well they see some good when no goods been there
See the way to beat a friend down
See the pain behind that rage
See the truth behind those games
I said to look at her with atomic eyes
Did you look deep down for what's inside?
And the shadowed truth and manmade lies
So you could see with atomic eyes?
He looks down, the cruelty in his smile
No lights there, oh he's been dead a while
His duality, oh never liked that boy
Another self showed off to play decoy
Well they see some good when no goods been there
See the way to beat a friend down
See the pain behind that rage
See the truth behind those games
I said to look at her with atomic eyes
Did you look deep down those place to hide?
And tried to see things from his side
You have quite a site of atomic eyes
Come on! Come on!
You see hiiiiimmmm (2x)
Atomic eyes
Well they see some good when no goods been there
See the way to beat a friend down
See the pain behind that rage
See the truth behind those games
I said to look at her with atomic eyes
Did you look deep down for what's inside?
And the shadowed truth and manmade lies
So you could see with atomic eyes?
