

Atozzio, Til It's Gone

I remember the day (The day)
Things that you said (you said)
How you regret that we ever met
That I'm not real
You found someone who is (who is)
You could of done much better than
I need to pack all my things
Make sure I leave your key
Cause your fed up and you've had enough
And on my way out the door
You look straight in my face
Told me all the love you had for me is hate
Girl you sneaking on the phone calling me
Sending text messages
You regret what you did
And you wanna go back to what we use to be
That's the biggest mistake you made
Now you're missing my touch
You're missing my kiss
Who knew when you left you would miss me like this
You're missing the times
You're missing my jokes
You're missing my keys unlocking the door
You're missing my love
You're missing my voice
That day you walked away girl you made your choice
You miss what we had
Wanna take it back
You don't miss a good thing til it's gone (Til it's gone)
(Til it's gone, til it's gone, til it's gone, til it's gone)
You don't miss a good thing til it's gone (Til it's gone)
(Til it's gone, til it's gone, til it's gone, til it's gone)
You don't miss a good thing til it's gone (Til it's gone)
You say your miserable without me in your life (your life)
And you wish you could the turn back the hands of time
You thought the grass was greener on the other side
Now everything has gone wrong with mr. right
that day, keep on planning ahead
Living without me is getting hard
They say anything worth having is worth fighting for
I guess you weren't willing to go to war
Now you're missing my touch
You're missing my kiss (my kiss)
Who knew when you left you would miss me like this (miss me like this)
You're missing the times
You're missing my jokes (my jokes)
You're missing my keys unlocking the door (unlocking the door)
You're missing my love
You're missing my voice (my voice)
That day you walked away girl you made your choice (you made your choice)
You miss what we had
Wanna take it back (you wanna take it back)
You don't miss a good thing til it's gone (you don't)
(Til it's gone, til it's gone, til it's gone, til it's gone)
You don't miss a good thing til it's gone (Til it's gone)
(Til it's gone, til it's gone, til it's gone, til it's gone)
You don't miss a good thing til it's gone (Til it's gone)
I was tryna be your soldier, girl
I was willing to do anything for you
I was tryna be your soldier, girl
The realest one
I was tryna be your soldier, girl
Now who's gonna hold you down
I was tryna be your soldier, girl

What now
Now you're missing my touch (my touch)
You're missing my kiss (my kiss)
Who knew when you left you would miss me like this (you never knew)
You're missing the times (never knew)
You're missing my jokes (The way I make you laugh)
You're missing my keys unlocking the door (you're missing me)
You're missing my love
You're missing my voice
And when you walked away girl you made your choice (you made your choice)
You miss what we had
Wanna take it back (you wanna take it back)
You don't miss a good thing til it's gone (it's gone)
(Til it's gone, til it's gone, til it's gone, til it's gone)
You don't miss a good thing til it's gone (miss a good thing til it's gone)
(Til it's gone, til it's gone, til it's gone, til it's gone)
You don't miss a good thing til it's gone (Til it's gone)
