

Attak, Face The Slayer

Face the slayer she'll cut you down
Try to fight she'll destroy your town
She's got the strength but not the right
To make you kill or make you fight
Her colours blue but her eyes are red
For the blood that she will shed
Money corrupts her evil mind
A piece of peace she's not got
To run our lives she cannot
She means good so she said
She's gotta be out of her head
The pain she gives give her back
See the power that she lacks
Face the slayer one more time
See your life on the line
