Yeahhhhh Why you standin there, whatchu starin at? Yeahh we kicked it into overdrive and im glad you came along for the ride Sit in tight, watch out for ice These roads are dangerous tonight Danger Stranded with nowhere to go, lets get wasted Throw all your change on the floor This is a chance to lose control and forget all about this mess that weve been stuck in for so long We will prevail, and party to pass all this unwanted time Lets get, GET WASTED More alcohol than anyone could drink in a single night We can tear the place apart but please dont get in a fight! Here we go, get on the floor, get some Dont stop the flow, get up And then we realized We got to get out of this state I cant imagine another day of entrapment Stranded in the ice, we gotta give this a try Sliding off the road, and we got hit by a truck!
