

Au Revoir Simone, Backyards

Baby tell me please
Is this a dream
Spending the night with you
Beneath the cherrie trees
Just make a wish and every thing comes true

Out the windows of my bedroom
Through the backyards of our neighbors
But i didnt leave you waiting
There was endless concentration

Then the moon swept down to greet us
It was warm and made of flowers
Into vines that barely reached us
Climbing higher than forever

Baby tell me please in knowing this cause showing never tells
Was it just s breeze, was it a kiss
Breathless ecquisite chills
