

Au Revoir Simone, Organized Scenery

Trees grew leaves in the weeks, I was gone
No response when the neighbors came to call
And you wouldn't want it any other way
We know, everything changed
Sometimes summer wears away
When we want to see the sky
If you look down
You'll see, you'll find
In the warmth of the winter we cried out
Take what's left of your time and decide
And you wouldn't look beyond the other way
We know, everything changed
Remember ah-ah
Remember ah-ah
See how we watch the world go by when we wonder
We even let all our plants die, don't think about them
Oh seeking can be so time consuming
Remember ah-ah
Remember ah-ah
Trees grew leaves in the weeks, i was gone
Hands turn keys to the locks in the door
And we wouldn't want it any other way
We know, everything changed
