

Aubrey, No One In This World

no one in this world, no one in this world no one in this world, no one in this world, can take the place of you stop, right there

open your eyes
help me find a reason not to say goodbye
keep holding on to my love and again our hearts will mend nothing can break us apart only we decide the end

so let me love you
like never before
let me hold you in my arms
oh, let me feel you once more
'cause there's no one in this world that I want more than you and no one could ever take the place of you just stop

right there
how are we so blind not to see our love deprived kidding ourselves so easily and holding on to pride now we need to work things out or our love just won't survive

no one can take your place
can take the place of you let me love you

like never before

no one in this world
