

Audio Adrenaline, Church Punks

Church Punks
Forget the politics
And all the hypocrites
You know the body's sick
From religion, indecision, mediocrity
You think you're too young
You say you're too dumb
Wait 'til tomorrow comes
But today is the day
You've got to show the way

I say...

Hey now now
We're calling you out
Never back down
No fear, no doubt
Hey now now
You can show us how
You better get up
'Cause we're calling all church punks

This is a call for a truth rebellion
To all the people who hear
This is a call to make a stand
Throw your fists up in the air

Make up your mind
Now is the time
