

Audio Adrenaline, Go And Be

You're like a letter that's never mailed
You're like a hammer without a nail
You've been standing in this place for far too long

You come to the table and you get fed
Then you hide it inside your head
Why not open up and start to run

Go and Be nothing less than you
'Cause you begin in Him
He'll show you what you need to know to
Go and Be every single day
Go and Be

You're like a winner without a prize
You're like a bird without a sky
You're not into the race until you run

So run with your life and you will find
All the things you leave behind
Don't mean that when everything's brand new

Go and Be nothing less than you
Cause you begin in Him
He'll show you what you need to know to
Go and Be every single day
Go and Be

Will you be the one?
Will you be the one to come and see?
Will you be the one to go and be?

Go and be nothing less than you
'Cause you begin in Him
He'll show what you need to know to
Go and Be every single day
Who you are in Him
One who loves as Jesus loves
Now go and be
Nothing less than you
Go and be
Nothing less than true
Would you come and see
All there is to be
Go and be
Come and see
