well its been all this time carrees in the factories with all the common waste you've sorta taken a liking to me well its been all this time protecting what will come to me in an uncommon way will you arrive to me with thoughts so easily justified

well its been all this time the shipments turned its back to me and violations make communions in the factory will i arrive on time my blame is on the company feel out the package weight runaway i say i know i'll say runaway i know it's just too late what all did i say i know i'll say runaway

you can wait until i'm dead
