I remember when we first met
It was freshman summer, I can't forget
And daydreams of you and I
Wrote your name in my folder a thousand times
And why can't I just let you go when I know I should?
And why can't I just let you go when I know I should?
But I'm not sure I ever could

And how will we go on again?
It doesn't matter 'cuz you left me
Ticks the time away again
It doesn't matter 'cuz you're gone

Well I remember when we first met
And now I'm left to weather if you'll be gone forever
But daydreams of you and I
There's a place where I don't need to try
And why can't I just let you go when I know I should?
And why can't I just let you go when I know I should?
But I'm not sure I ever could

And how will we go on again?
It doesn't matter 'cuz you left me
Ticks the time away again
It doesn't matter cause you're gone

Well I remember when we first met
It was freshman summer, I can't forget
And daydreams of you and I
Wrote your name in my folder a thousand times
