

Audiovent, Only Human

This could be unsung before I reach that hell.

You trust in me, I'll trust in you.

But remember, I'm only human.

Before you lose your faith in me,

before you doubt,

before you lose your faith in me,

please hear me out.

Two seconds or a lifetime.

Do they compare?

I've lost nothing to before.

But remember, I'm only human.

Before you lose your faith in me,

before you doubt,

before you lose your faith in me,

please hear me out.

You really think I would waste my time?

Am I impure?

Before you lose your faith in me,

before you doubt,

before you lose your faith in me,

please hear me out.
