

Audiovent, Rain

Rain
Coming to cleanse
Will she fall?
Stares
Into the wind
And she cries

Her tears mark every time
That I swept the pain aside
Too much to withstand

When the Rain is coming
She will face it all
It's all on me, all over
And when it's overflowing
Can she break her fall?
Until I deal, I can't move on

Rain
Coming to vent
All she hides
Unavle to move
Though we try

Her feet off of the ground
My will can bring them down
If i'd open my eyes

When the Rain is coming
She will face it all
It's all on me, all over
And when it's overflowing
Can she break her fall?
Until I deal, I can't move on

Can the sun break, through the clouds
To reveal what we've found?

When the Rain is coming
She will face it all
It's all on me, all over
And when it's overflowing
Can she break her fall?
Until I deal, I can't move on

And when the Rain is coming
When it's overflowing
And when the pain is showing
When the Rain is coming
Flowing down
