Baby

When this world drives you crazy

Close your eyes and count to ten

Don't be afraid to begin again

Darlin'

When you smile you're so disarmin'

But you know as well as me

The reasons for your insecurity

So don't you hide in your magazine

You've got more than enough for me

So don't you hide

Sweetheart

It cuts me up when we're apart

Don't close your mind for you you'll find

You'd be a fool to look behind

Baby

Your love it sends me hazy

But you know as well as me

How fragile some people can be

So don't you hide in your magazine

You've got enough for me
