

Audrey Hannah, It's December (And I'll Be Missin

Last year, same time in December,
I had your love and I remember,
your gentle kiss and your gentle touch,
but now I seem to miss you much.
Last year, same time in December,
the nights had not been so cold.
You were holding me and I was also holding you,
you made me feel weigh I did and I miss you,
ohoho oh oho ohoh yeah, and miss you.

Chorus

It's December and I'll be missing you.
Christmas time, come on, make my dreams come true.
I remember all the heavy touch with you.
(I) Make my wish and hope this year my gift is you.
It's December and I'll be missing you.
Christmas time, come on, make my dreams come true.
I remember all the heavy touch with you
(I) Make my wish and this year I will be with you, I'll be with you.

Ohoho oh oho ohoh yeah, and miss you.
Now I'm sitting here, waiting (for) my dear,
watching in the snow falling down like last year.
Last year falling down from my eyes,
I got to make a wish for you baby:
I wish that I could be shining star, flying high in the sky,
so I can see where you are,
spending light in the night, right it could be,
this time for you, shine for you, help you bring you back to me,
ohoho oh oho ohoh yeah, bring you back to me.

Chorus

ohoho oh oho ohoh yeah
