hating myself for the way i've acted for so long now all of this confidence was wrong so i am changing the rules to a game i thought i knew so well breaking the news to myself, i've finally won fuck this i'm tired of making myself feel guilty for everything i believed in i'm sick of thinking i was wrong but i won't give up till i'm alright teasing myself i'm convinced i was right all along too many field trips to the bar so i am
