

August Premier, Tuckered Out

sometimes i feel we're better off without you anyway and i'll sit here for a while think of things to make you smile and realize we've both seen better days wait for another chance to be with you can't wait to tell you anything i haven't said to you i'll never, never see you again will we wait forever

or just until the stars come out
will we ever see december or will the summertime just swallow us up

-all x2-

will we wait forever
or just until the stars come out
or just until the stars come out
or will the summertime just swallow us summertime just swallow us summertime just swallow us up
