

August Premier, Turn Around

let's get it right this time for once in our lives let's turn our heads and walk away while we still can let's spend the night stuck inside this nightmare with no one there to wake us up act like we don't give a fuck yeah, yeah

turn around and let me see your face let me tell you one last time fuck you i don't need you anymore let's get it clear

i don't belong here i never did i never will thank god it's over let's take the time maybe for the rest of our lives until we find out who i am act like we don't give a good goddamn

let me tell you one last time

when i was younger i was stupid just like you but now we're getting older now what's your excuse and i was thinking maybe i'd be moving on right after i sing you, sing you this song

turn around and let me see your face
turn around don't you walk away
let me tell you one last time fuck you i don't need you
fuck you i don't need you anymore
