

Aura, Moonsymmetry XXI: Empires Ablaze

[ouverture]

And off we flew dissolved in the sky
And we flew invisible, armed with giant wings and scales like serpents. Elementals were we...
Seven hours, until the crescent dawn. Oh how sweet this nocturnal flight, through winds of silken and wisdom gold. With crystal swords we split the air...

And on we flew...

[Act I: MCMXCV Andromeda flight]

"Come fly with me...my goddess of fire and earth
...of storms and sea...Through light the dark"; Behold ! Empires burn for us, our heavens washed in dew, the turn of the cosmic tides ?

Come and spread thy wings...

...And thus we will fly our hearts entwined
Join with the pulse of universe's blood. Infinity... reached in the glory of aeons. Wander...in the tranquillity of creation everblazing star, and ever withering heart

...Das Licht....die Seele...woher sind wir gesturzt ?

Eyes afire, with the flame of light, in hungry blaze of majesty... And yet so saddened, with lifelorn tears
Oh, crimson stream our hearts downtrod...

Forlorn !

Within light, within soul, how splendid be our fall
What is it that I see in thine eyes ? at the shrieking iron and flames. Hurlled through still heavens ? What quaver what heart aghast ?

And our names echo...in spirals through time
and in the everweaving patterns of universe...
Will we ever be remembered ??
