

Aurora, Blood In The Wine

I was given a heart
Before I was given a mind
A thirst for pleasure and war
A hunger we keep inside

We fell from sky with grace
And life gave us a sweeter taste
You can drink
You can feast
There's beauty in your beast
The flesh in the fruit
And the blood in the wine

Come and feel alive, lover
Come and feel the love like a sinner
Shout it louder
Shout it for the ones who could never say
"I won't feel ashamed, Mother"
"Can you break the chains of her?"
Shout it louder
Not a sinner, she's a lover

I was given a name
Before I was given blood
Like you were given your faith
Before there was made a God

Young rivers in your hands
And grass burning in promised lands
You can drink
You can feast
There's beauty in your beast
The flesh in the fruit
And the blood in the wine

Come and feel alive, lover
Come and feel the love like a sinner
Shout it louder
Shout it for the ones who could never say
"I won't feel ashamed, Mother"
"Can you break the chains of her?"
Shout it louder
Not a sinner, she's a lover

Come and feel alive
Come and feel the love
Shout it louder
Shout it for the ones who could never say
"I won't feel ashamed, Mother"
"Can you break the chains of her?"
Shout it louder
Not a sinner, she's a lover

Come and feel alive, lover
Come and feel the love like a sinner
Shout it louder
Shout it for the ones who could never say
"I won't feel ashamed, Mother"
"Can you break the chains of her?"
Shout it louder
Not a sinner, she's a lover
