

Aurora Borealis, Sky Dweller

Ahhhh Hydra The serpentine, Immortal so it seems Slain, it cannot be, Soon I shall see

In the shadows I go, into its home In the shadows I know, it waits alone
In the shadows I fan, my feelings of hate

Nine heads staring at me, eighteen eyes that can see No fear in my soul, this beast I control Battle raising fierce, off with one head and two appear what can be done, to pass this labor the second one

In the depths of this hell, lerna calls me out snake, marshes its bed, soon it s home will run red Blood falling like rain, its life will I drain Burn the severed limbs, none will appear again

One the first head falls, two seal it off third head and fourth, the legend heads north six, seven and eight, the ninth I decapitate last and immortal head I bury down, beneath the ground Forever, and ever, and ever
