

Aurora, It's Just

Do you remember we tumbled around
Just like crazy dogs in town?
And we were dynamite?
And love was a delight?
Every day and every night?
Just you and me and you
A new morning rises
And everything's fine...
A dog is mad, a lunatic cat
Saw red and went blind...
A w
And do you remember I was terrified
As I couldn't see what made the dog bite
Maybe it was my flesh?
Was it too sweet?
Did I not treat your dog well?
Didn't it any longer like me?
V
But we are still one big family
You and me and the crazy puppy
And I'm dynamite
And I'm terrified
Every day and night
Still terrified of you and your crazy dog
