Austin Mahone

You're so automatic

Five star status going off on 'em baby
I love how you flex
Your style is so crazy, you're a fire on the set
You're a problem, girl, gotta get you
Ain't no waitin' with it
The one you came here with
Tell that boy forget it
Too faded's what to tell him
'Coz I got him next
You don't need no explanation
Let him see and figure it out

Your eyes are telling that you're riding with me
But I'd be lyin' if I didn't admit it
The things I wanna say to you right here
I done said it but I just can't say it 'til I said it

You're a banga banga banga banga
I wanna pledge a bet
Before the night is over
Girl, I'm gonna make it that
So, promise if I make you mine
So, promise if I make you mine
You ain't gonna play with that Show me where that turn up at

I'm on my Brad Pitt, come and be my future Angelina
Now you know enough to get it
