Autamata, I Spy

What you got for me in your bag? Is it the happy that you bring? And in that pocket with its chain Is that a very good thing I spy?

You look like a long time You look like Get to know me tonight

Now get to know me Tonight, take it slowly

Keep it real

Know that time will take care of us Now we know that there is no rush To close the deal, I will seal our Mouths with a kiss We can hold onto this and keep it real
