

Autamata, Onward

My head is in my hands
I withheld some information there
Looking at the one I wanted to take out across the world
I planned, to ask
Will you take me
Sailing, onward
I'm a little lighter on my feet
Just knowing that you exist

My heart is in my hands
I'm holding it out to you now
Take it from me then I'll let you take it out into the world
I have a plan
Will you take me
Sailing, onward
I'm a little lighter on my feet
Just knowing that you exist

See the colours of the stars
In my
I am
supposed to feel
