

Autolux, Plantlife

All for one growing, in you, growing you can be afraid of it, but callously go on bend to me, darling, you'll see, darling it's a violet way we have, even when we smile we're so dumb someways, so dumb, always tied up and pulled apart, like a kidnapped root kill your best ideas, your crossed beliefs catch a glimpse of natalie in catalina fog shut your mouth, ooh

shut your mouth, ah
shut your mouth...
