

Automatic Loveletter, Don't Make It So

i'm crying without tears i'm blue for you and shouldn't all the stars down exchieding for a wish it goes darker in my heart this western sun is sinking like the choking in my throat i'll be i'll be missing you
will you miss me too
turning black and blue
don't wanna go, don't wanna go don't make it so there's a burning in the hour growing on forever, well look at you i'll find something that's new all i want is you cross my heart and hold for us i swear i won't forget you
will you miss me too
i believe in you, i believe in me too so deep is this bruise
don't make so
we'll be all right
cause the further we go is the fonder we grow we're both just right
cause the distance is further tonight
will you miss me too
i'll be missing you (don't make so)
