

Automatic Loveletter, I Notice

As far as I know
You could already be
Somebody else's honey
But I can't stop looking at you
Supposed to be up here singing 'bout love
When you gaze distracts my every strum
Don't know your name or where you're from
Just know this I notice
I, I look in your eyes and oh from the look in your eyes I realize all that matters
Hey boy, yeah I'm talkin' to you
Your messy black hair and your deep baby blues
I think I'd like the way you smell and the taste of a morning with you
I could be making this up
Cause all I ever wanted was that kind of no yeah still lookin at me
Fuckin' beautifully
I, I look in your eyes and oh from the look in your eyes I realize all that matters
Hey
Can't say goodbye, Not lettin' you go this time
Cause the look in your eye, oh the look in your eye
Never make me cry
Look in your eyes and oh from the look in your eyes I realize all that matters
Now I look in your eyes and I realize all that matters
