

Automorrow, Overboard

If you haven't heard enough you're not listening
But if I turn it up would you miss the point
And if I died today would you miss me
Or would that coincide with your TV guide
I'm not gonna drown with the likes of you
Would you turn the TV down
And if I died today, would you miss me
Or would that coincide with your TV guide
I'm not gonna drown with the likes of you
Would you turn the TV down
Sinful sirens sound
And you'd hear it too
A canary in the coal mine takes the stage
I thought I heard the sound of change
It always gets me how the time is always now
