

Autumn, Oceans

we walk beneath the waves of sand as dreams of starfish overwhelm and bluest greens
like liquid fire
pour over us as silence reigns
oceans apart
distance overcome
to swirl, to dance
into you and i
our wailing anguish - so stripped away
oceans apart
distance overcome
oceans apart
distance so overcome
faith restored
to the skies
