

Autumnblaze, Wake Me Up in the Evening

Tell me how long I've been waiting for a wake-up call late in the evening
Tell me where I've been so many times
Close to the distance here in my sleeping room

I'm freezing here

Tell me why the ghosts always frighten me Back to the caves of my childhood I ever run but still I'm freezing

Wake me up in the evening
When landscapes are covered with a dark blue film
Wake me up in the evening
When noises scream and shivers rise

Moving little nightmares Rumours of shivering cries and a minor road swirling and creeping towards its slow end!
