

Ava Max, EveryTime I Cry

I, i had a dream was sinin'
Slow motion
Every superficial meaning

I get overwhelmed in all the messy emottions
They say that i never notice

Every time i cry
I get a little bit stronger
Stronger, i know, i know that
Angel used to be the devil on my shoulder
Shoulder, oh, not anymore

When the voices get loud
I am turnin' them down
Feel good in my body forever and ever
When the tears start to fall
I am catchin' em all
And i know the futur eis better
Cause

Every time I Cry
I get a little bit stronger
Stronger, I get a little bit stronger
Every time I Cry
I get a little bit stronger
Stronger, I get a little bit stronger

I, i used to spend the nights inside my head
Thinkin'
Where the hell you think you're goin'?
I, i used to count the days inside my bad, thinkin'
I prefer tchem now, i know it

When the voices get loud
I am turnin' them down
Feel good in my body forever and ever
When the tears start to fall
I am catchin' em all
And i know the futur eis better
Cause

Every time I Cry
I get a little bit stronger
Stronger, I get a little bit stronger
Every time I Cry
I get a little bit stronger
Stronger, I get a little bit stronger

When the voices get loud
I am turnin' them down
Feel good in my body forever and ever
When the tears start to fall
I am catchin' em all
And i know the futur eis better
Cause

Every time I Cry
I get a little bit stronger
Stronger, I get a little bit stronger
Every time I Cry
I get a little bit stronger
Stronger, I get a little bit stronger
