

Ava Max, Turn Off The Lights

Now I'm here in the space between
You had no sense of home
Been hard to keep your sanity
With the world you used to know

Just been staying alive
Not been living right
Hanging on the wire
Let them change your fate
See the other side
Mirage of your life
Skipping through the night
No one guide the way

So baby turn off the lights
And stare at the stars
They could be yours right now
Could be yours right now
Turn off the lights
We're seeing the dark
It could be yours right now
Could be yours right now

(Turn off the lights, turn off the-)
(Turn off the lights, turn off the-)
(Turn off the lights, turn) coming alive, coming alive
(Turn off the lights turn off the-)
(Turn off the lights turn off the-)
(Turn off the lights, turn) coming alive, coming alive

A paradise that they can't see
A world behind the cries
Lost up in infinity
Euphoria's in your eyes

Just been staying alive
Not been living right
Hanging on the wire
Let them change your fate
See the other side
Mirage of your life
Skipping through the night
No one guide the way

So baby turn off the lights
And stare at the stars
They could be yours right now
Could be yours right now
Turn off the lights
We're seeing the dark
It could be yours right now
Could be yours right now

(Turn off the lights, turn off the-)
(Turn off the lights, turn off the-)
(Turn off the lights, turn) coming alive, coming alive
(Turn off the lights, turn off the-)
(Turn off the lights, turn off the-)
(Turn off the lights, turn) coming alive, coming alive

(Turn off the lights)

(Turn off the lights)
