

Avail, 25 Years

my mother said things are fine and turned the other way my troubles she said go way back far before my father threw up his arms in a cold aggressive rage i've been fightin my conscience years now e what's there to pray about? letting go is not so simple what's there to pray about? i should have pic