

Avail, Armchair

to defend or to stay out it's not a question of who is right debate left no impact and still never solved the question of who to fight
but what has talking done when actions go unplanned discussions changing nothing marching with feet tied centered on self falling behind
when focusing on pride pride lies it screams so loud but it never says a thing but one's controlling the crowd sit and stare
listen but please don't care
