

Avail, C. Days

One thousand lines
I've been the one to change in time
Believe this
I lost feeling
Lost feeling
Don't question
That we've seen cloudy days
And been blind by sunset
And all that's been proved
Is I still can't trust you, regret
I lost feeling
Lost feeling
Don't question
Yes, we've seen cloudy days
And been blind by sunset

This morning I felt like I would break
From mistakes I never made
But I won't suffer
For anyone anymore
Tonight was dark as sin
It's as if nothing's changed

Be straight up
What would be light?
What would be light?
Be straight up
What would be light?
What would be light?

Yes, I've been in for days
I'm still blind by sunset

This morning I felt like I would break
From mistakes I never made
But I won't suffer
For anyone anymore
Tonight was dark as sin
It's as if nothing's changed

Be straight up
What would be light?
What would be light?
Be straight up
What would be light?
What would be light?

Don't question
Don't question
Don't question
