

Avail, Hang

i heard you got robbed last week did you know i got shot last night? it's like dependency on a game called hearsay you hear it said but did you hear it right? so i was walking the bricks in my front yard they're uneven and cracking with age i made an attempt to arrange them perfectly but when i got done they wouldn't fit into place and i can't say when i plan on giving up i'm trying to think don't know when it will end i heard a rumor you went on a trip did you know i just got back? i had a chance to think while i was away i pointed fingers of blame until they were pointing at me so i rode my temper until i heard the water but i hit a fence that was chained and barred i looked and tried to find another way in that's when i finally realized that i'd been trying too hard
