

Avantasia, Creepshow

Get up, get up, come out!
Get up, get up, come out!
Get up, get up, come out!
Get up, get up, come out!

Coming down like a storm
Rolling thunder
Lightning strikes cleave the night in two
Step inside, curb your mind
To waste your time on scrutinising is quite inopportune

We're the spark to set a fire, now
To your soul
A fire you will not control
We are - we're the craving
You've been trying to keep under
The mask of etiquette

Get up, get up, come out!
We're off to midnight
Here's to you
Welcome to the creepshow

Get up, get up, come out!
We're chasing twilight
Raise your glass
Welcome to the creepshow

Chant a spell, supercell to spawn a denizen of hell
Defying time
Starry-eyed, mystified, ghost ally
Your episteme is on the line - ah

Wondering glance, you got admittance
Wondrous dance
Riot in the slough of hell
Can't stop us
Ride out in a chariot of fire
Right into your dreams - ah

Get up, get up, come out!
We're off to midnight
Here's to you
Welcome to the creepshow

Get up, get up, come out!
We're chasing twilight
Raise your glass
Welcome to the creepshow

Get up, get up, come out!
Get up, get up, come out!

Get up, get up, come out!
We're off to midnight
Here's to you
Welcome to the creepshow

Get up, get up, come out!
We're chasing twilight
Raise your glass
Welcome to the creepshow

Get up, get up, come out!
